

Statistics about Suicide* in Canada

In 2009, 3,890 Canadians ended their lives by suicide. 90% have mental health or addictive disorders. Statistically, 75% are men, and 25% are women.

For every one death
by suicide, it is estimated there were 20 attempts.

Tell Me More:

Help!

Over 8,000 people in Canada search Google for 'kill myself' each month.

Why?

More than 90% of those that commit suicide have a mental or addictive disorder.

Who?

On average, suicide happens at a rate of 15 out of every 100,000 people.

How?

44% choose death by hanging, 25% by poisoning and 16% use a firearm.

* We want to see these statistics get better. There are people out there that care. WE are people that care. We can make a difference to connect people looking online for answers to real answers. To real help.